OUR JUDGES

RING 1 – ALL GROUPS

DIANE DAVIDSON - NZCF

Diane Davidson registered the Askari prefix with the New Zealand Cat Fancy Inc (NZCF Inc.) in 1980. Persians were my love then, however five years later I became rather smitten with a little Blue cream female kitten that was a result of an accidental mating between a Persian and a domestic cat, so started my love for the Exotics.

From that one mating I built the foundations of my breeding program and pride myself on only having bred with Persians as my “outcross” rather than any other already established breed. These teddy bears or Persians in miniskirts have been a part of my life ever since.

In 1985 I was accepted into the NZCF Inc Longhair Judges School. I am now a Longhair Tutor Judge and have the pleasure of being able to judge at shows overseas. I had always been a distant admirer of the beautiful Shorthair cats and decided that I would like to Judge them, in 1995 I was accepted into the Shorthair Judges School and am now a fully qualified All Breeds Judge.

Three drunks are standing on top of the Empire State Building looking down at the streets far below.

The first drunk says to the other two, "You know, it's a funny thing about the wind currents you get up here. A person could jump off of this building right now and not even hit the ground; the wind would carry him right back up here to the top of the building!"

The second drunk doesn't believe him and says, "No way! You're crazy!" but the first drunk says, "I'm serious! Watch!"

He then jumps off of the building, floats in the air, and the wind carries him right back up and he steps back onto the building.

The second drunk is amazed and says, "Wow, let me try!"

So he jumps off of the building and falls helplessly to the street below, landing with a horrible noise, and being killed instantly.

The third drunk looks at the first one and says, "You know, Superman, you can be a real jerk when you're drunk!"
